Pajeet Karmarkar

Section Leader at ACADEMI (A Constellis Company)
Chelmsford

Summary

I am THE MAN. What man you ask? well I'm THE MAN of high class. THE MAN of limitless wisdom and knowledge. My knowledge is the key aspect of my work philosophy I am known as the working philosopher in the various groups I have collaborated with through my younger and more youthful days. My Third Eye is open this fact shows my divination and intuition skills are still here and exist despite what people may tell you I am BAR NONE the best in this industry and I will be an asset of your company.

This is just a friendly warning if you do choose to use me you may end up working for me as my BITCH. I'm the BEST in the west but the LEAST in the east.

Choose me for I'm THE MAN I SAID THE MAN. you get me? you know what I'm saying my Gangtas? I think you get me. I Have divine knowledge from my wise elders from my Ancient Order of Druids days.
